The Adventures Begin

Once upon a time, there were three fairy sisters. The oldest Jasmine the moon fairy sixteen, the middle Violet the sun fairy twelve, and the youngest Alexandra the water fairy eight. They all have magic powers and live in a castle in the sky, each sister's room represents their powers. Jasmine has the power of the moon and whenever she sees the moon she spreads love out to the world, she is the strongest when the moon is full. Her bedroom is painted walls to ceiling with the moon and stars. Violet has the power of the sun and whenever the sun is shining she spreads warmth to the world. Her bedroom is painted walls to ceiling with the sun and clouds. Alexandra has the power of the water and whenever she is around water she sends peace and harmony to the world. Her bedroom is painted walls to ceiling with waves. And the rest of the castle looks like a combination of all three power symbols.

The girls loved spending time together in their castle but sometimes they felt as though something was missing. One night when Jasmine was reading and Violet was hula hooping with Alexandra, Alexandra stopped hooping for a second,

"I feel like something is missing" said Alexandra.

"What do you mean?" asked Jasmine looking up from her book.

"I feel like its lonely or something, like it's not supposed to just be the three of us here" said Alexandra.

"Do you think we should have a party and have friends come over?" asked Violet while she stopped hooping.

“No not like that” Alexandra replied, “more like I think there are supposed to be more people living here.”

Violet and Jasmine looked at each other confused not knowing how to respond, then Jasmine replied “Do you mean like our parents?”

“Yes” said Alexandra, “where are they and why haven’t we met them?” she continued.

“I don’t know why they aren’t here but they’ve never been here Alex” said Jasmine.

“Well then I think we should go find them” said Alex.

“How do we do that? We don’t even know if they are still alive or what they look like or what their names are” said Violet.

“We need to look for them even though we don’t know much about them! Who’s with me?” said Alex with excitement.

“Violet is right Alex, also it might be dangerous, we should stay here” said Jasmine.

“But we haven’t seen anyone aside from each other in... we have never seen anyone aside from each other because we never leave the castle” Alex said angrily.

“Also, we don’t have any friends aside from each other because we don’t know if there are any other fairies” she added, “there might not be any other fairies” she proclaimed.

“Then how do you explain that are powers work?” asked Violet.

“And how do you know there aren’t any other fairies and we are the only ones?” asked jasmine.

“Plus, if we are the only fairies then how do we exist?” asked Violet.

“We know are powers work because we feel them inside of ourselves, that isn’t the point, the point is that I want to go on an adventure to find our parents and find other fairies along the way” said Alex.

“That does sound a little fun and I do want to meet other fairies, I’m in” said Violet.

“Well, I don’t know, I’m still nervous about this, but it would be nice to meet more fairies so I’m in” said Jasmine, “we can leave in the morning” she continued.

“Yay!” said Alex.

Then Alex and Violet went back to hooping and Jasmine went back to her book. The next day, Alex, Violet and Jasmine set out to go searching for their parents and other fairies.

“I’m so excited for this adventure!” said Alex as the girls began their quest,

“I’m a little nervous about it” said Violet, “What if we don’t find any other fairies but we find other creatures that are dangerous?” she continued.

“I bet we will be fine, also don’t forget that we are fairies with magical powers so if we do run into any dangerous creatures then we could fight them off with our powers” said Alex. “You’re right on the powers Alex but I still don’t feel right about this, I think we should go back” said Violet.

“I’m not going back until I find more fairies including our parents” said Alex, “What do you think about all this Jasmine?” Alex asked Jasmine.

“I think we should keep going because we just started and haven’t gotten very far yet” said Jasmine.

“Yay” said Alex.

“But what about all the danger that could arise?” asked Violet.

“Don’t worry Violet, we will be ok” said Jasmine in encouragement.

“Ok but I’m still scared” said Violet clutching onto Jasmine.

As the fairy sisters travel deeper in the forest, they start to wonder if they will find what they are looking for, or find something different lurking deeper in the forest. After hours of walking and flying through the forest, Violet and Jasmine start to get worried because it is starting to get dark out and the further they go, the further away they are from home.

“Should we go back now? It’s starting to get dark and we might not be able to find our way back home in the dark” said Violet hoping to go home.

“No! We should keep going and try harder to find more fairies!” said Alex.

“Maybe we could set up a place to stay tonight and start searching more in the morning?” said Jasmine.

“Yeah let’s do that!” said Alex.

“But we’ve never stayed outside of the castle before” said Violet.

“Oh come on Violet, where is your sense of adventure?” asked Alex.

“Um... it’s back at home in the castle, I’m used to reading about adventures not going on them” said Violet.

“Alex is right Violet, you need to find your sense of adventure and we will be fine out here once we make a place to stay the night” said Jasmine.

“But how do we make a place to stay?” asked Violet.

“We find twigs and leaves and make a little fairy house” said Jasmine.

“How do you know how to that?” asked Violet surprised.

“I’ve read about in books” said Jasmine.

“Ok, let’s find some twigs and leaves and start making this house!” said Alex in excitement.

The girls start looking for twigs and leaves to make a house. As they look and start making the house, it gets darker out and harder for them to see what they are doing.

“It’s hard to see what we are doing, maybe we should stop” said Violet.

“We are not stopping until we are done and safe” said Alex.

“Alex is right, also we will be done soon so we will be fine” said Jasmine.

“Ok, let’s try to finish as soon as possible” said Violet.

The girls continue to make the house and after a few more minutes, they finally finish it.

“So can we go in now?” asked Violet.

“Yes Violet, we can go in now” Jasmine said while shrugging.

The fairy sisters went into the house they made and started getting ready for bed.

“Do we have to go to sleep? I’m not tired and I want to keep looking” Alex said while yawning.

“It is to late to keep looking and you clearly are tired since you just yawned, goodnight” Violet said.

“Ok, goodnight” Alex said as she drifted off to sleep.

Violet woke up and spurn up off of the ground as the sun began to rise. Eager to continue with their search, Alex started jumping and flying from energy and the need for more adventure.

“Wake up Jasmine! Wake up Violet! I want to start up the search again!” Alex said with excitement as she continued to jump and fly around.

“The sun has barely made it all the way up Alex” Jasmine said as she slowly starts waking up.

“Yeah Alex, it’s pretty early still. Don’t you want to wait a little while and maybe get some more sleep?” Violet said as she slowly starts waking up.

“I don’t need more sleep, I need to continue on this adventure!” Alex said.

“Ok Alex, hold your horses. We get back to the adventure soon” Jasmine said.

“Jasmine and I just need to wake up a little more before we continue” Violet said as she yawned and stretched.

“Yay” Alex said.

After a few minutes, Jasmine and Violet were ready and the girls continued on with their adventure. The girls walked and flew for a few hours and stopped at a pretty waterfall.

“Wow! This waterfall is so nice! Let’s stop for a few minutes and rest” Violet said.

“I guess we could stop for a little while” Jasmine agreed.

“I don’t want to stop!... But, this is a really pretty waterfall” Alex said.

While the girls spent some time at the waterfall, Alex and Violet used some of their powers.

“Look at what I can do” Alex said as she made a water slide.

“That’s so cool Alex! Check this out” Violet said as she reflected some sunlight onto the waterfall to make it look rainbow.

“Wow girls! That is a very colorful water slide! It’s too bad that I can’t do anything with it right now” Jasmine said.

“You can ride it” Alex said in a reassuring tone, “We all can!” she continued.

“Yeah Jasmine, Alex is right! Let’s ride it!” Violet said as she begins riding on the water slide.

After a few minutes of water slide fun, Alex stops and makes the water slide disappear, which causes Jasmine and Violet to quickly fly so that they won't fall.

"Why did you get rid of the water slide Alex?" Jasmine asked as she flew over to Alex.

"We are supposed to be looking for more fairies, not having fun at a pretty waterfall"

Alex said in a disappointing tone.

"It's ok Alex, we can stop and explore things along the way. That is what an adventure is all about" Violet said while flying over to Jasmine and Alex.

Alex hesitated for a minute before replying to Violet, "You're right Violet, I just needed a reminder on that. Can we keep going please?"

"Yeah, let's keep going" Jasmine chimed in as they continued on with their adventure.

The fairy sisters flew and walked far and wide through the forest until they made it to what looked like the end of their journey. For the sisters had just stumbled upon three paths that forged through what looked like the rest of the forest.

"What are we going to do now?" Alex asked.

"I don't know" Violet replied, "Maybe we should go home?" she continued.

"We are not going home, we've come this far" Jasmine said.

"But it could take us days or weeks to go down all these paths together" Violet said.

"It probably wouldn't take that long if we split up and each go down one path to see where it leads us and who it might lead us to" Alex said.

"That's a good idea Alex, we can cover more ground that way" Jasmine said.

"I don't know about that idea, it could be more dangerous if we split up" Violet said in a nervous tone.

"But we haven't had to deal with anything dangerous yet" Alex said reassuring Violet.

“Plus, we are still fairies with magical powers we could use if anything bad happens”

Jasmine added.

Violet paused for a moment before replying, “Well, I guess you guys are right, I’m in. But I’m still scared and nervous” Violet replied in a somewhat nervous tone.

“So it’s settled then, who’s going to go down which path?” Alex said.

“I’ll go down the right path” Jasmine said.

“I can go down the middle path” Alex said.

“Ok, I guess that means I’m going down the left path” Violet said, “I hope we all see each other soon” she continued.

“Me too, have fun on your adventures!” Alex said.

“Be careful and try to stay safe sisters” Jasmine said.

The girls gave each other a big group hug before starting on their now separate adventures into the rest of the forest.

“Good luck” Alex said as she started flying down the second path.

“Good luck to you too Alex!” Jasmine said as she started flying down the third path.

“Well, here I go” Violet said as she slowly started flying down the first path.

Violet's Adventure

As Violet slowly flies down the path further into the forest, her fears grow bigger and start taking over.

“Oh I hope I find my way out of here and find other fairies soon” she says out loud to herself, “I hate being all alone in this scary forest” she continues.

As the sun begins to set, a cool breeze starts flowing through the trees and some animals start coming out of their homes as Violet continues on her journey.

“Hello” Violet says in a hesitating voice, “is anyone out there?” she continues.

“Whoosh, who, who, squeak!”

“What was that?” she says, as she hears the wind rustling in the trees. Along with an owl and some bats flying around.

“I have to be brave, I have to be brave” Violet says to herself in hopes of keeping her confidence up and trying her best to not let her fears completely take over.

“I’m sure that there’s nothing bad out here that’s going to get me... well I hope there’s nothing coming to get me” she says.

The more she flies, the darker and scarier it gets Violet tries her best to keep looking for other fairies, but her fears are starting to get the better of her.

“I wish it were lighter out and wasn’t so dark, I don’t like the dark and my powers don’t work at night” she says as she keeps flying.

“I really don’t like this, maybe I should stop” she says while she stops flying and starts contemplating on what to do.

“Well, maybe I should just keep going and I will find other fairies soon?” She says, “Or maybe I should try to make a place to stay tonight and continue in the morning” she continues.

“Need help figuring out what to do?” a mysterious voice says.

“Aah! Who’s there?” Violet asks nervously while looking around the path.

“Show yourself!” Violets says, “or don’t if you don’t want to” she continues.

The mysterious creature walks through the trees and onto the path to meet Violet and help her on her adventure.

“What and who are you?” Violet asks.

“I’m Moonstone the troll” Moonstone says.

“I’m Violet the sun fairy” Violet replies, “I’ve never met a troll before... I’ve actually never met anything or anyone new before” she continued.

“My sisters and I are looking for other fairies, including our parents whom we don’t remember” Violet said.

“That sounds like a fun adventure!” Moonstone says, “Where are your sisters?” she continues.

“They are on different paths, we started on this journey together but then there were three paths and we each went down one” Violet said.

“That’s cool, I also have two sisters” Moonstone said.

"I hope my sisters are doing well on their adventures and I hope they don't run into anything scary" Violet says.

"I'm sure they will be ok Violet" Moonstone says in a reassuring tone.

"Maybe, I don't know. It is pretty scary out here, especially at night" Violet said.

"Are you scared of the dark?" Moonstone asks, "My house is not far from here if you want to spend the night" she continues.

"Are you sure? I don't want to impose" Violet says, "But I am scared of being out here alone in the dark surrounded by all the scary creatures lurking around" she continued.

"There's nothing to be scared of, follow me" Moonstone said.

Violet nods and follows Moonstone off the path into the forest. As they walk, Violet trembles in fear and looks around as she tries to see the owls, other creatures and leaves blowing through the breeze she hears in the trees.

"Don't be scared Violet, we're almost there!" Moonstone says, "you can hold my hand if you want to" she continued as she put out hand.

"Thanks" Violet said as she grabbed Moonstones hand.

They walked a little further into the forest, the two walk up to a grassy spot in the middle of the forest with a small pond and a cave near the water.

"There's my house" Moonstone said with enthusiasm.

"Is the cave your house?" Violet asks.

"Yep, that's where my sisters and I live" Moonstone said, "Follow me in" she continued.

"I don't know, I'm still scared" Violet said in a nervous tone.

"There are light on inside" Moonstone said.

"Ok, let's go" Violet said.

Moonstone walks into her house and Violet slowly follows while she covers and closes her eyes with her hands in fear.

“You can open your eyes now, it’s ok” said Moonstone

As Violet slowly puts down her hands and opens her eyes, she sees the inside of a cave with lots of rooms down a hallway and a kitchen, dining room and living room in front of the foyer. Violet walks into the living room following Moonstone, and as they are walking, a little troll comes running up to them and hugs Moonstone very tightly.

“Yay Moonstone you’re home!” says Embergrove, Moonstone’s younger sister.

“Hi Embergrove, yes I’m home” Moonstone said.

“Um hi” Violet says quietly.

“Hi, wow are you a real fairy?” Embergrove asks with excitement.

“Yeah I’m Violet and I’m a real fairy” Violet says.

“Cool! I’ve never met a real fairy before!” Embergrove says.

“What’s with all this noise?” a voice says from another room as she walks towards the living room. “Oh hi Moonstone, you’re back and you brought a fairy with you” Gravewillow says.

“Hi Gravewillow, yes this is Violet and she is spending the night” Moonstone says.

“Ok, whatever I’m going to bed. Goodnight everyone” Gravewillow says as she walks back to her room.

“How long are you staying here?” Embergrove asks Violet.

“I’m just staying tonight and then I’m going back on my adventure to find other fairies including my parents and hopefully meet my sisters at the end of my adventure” Violet says explaining her adventure to Embergrove.

“Wow! That is so Cool! I have never been on an adventure before!” Embergrove says.

“This is mine and my sisters’ first adventure too, I hope they are doing alright” Violet says.

“I’m sure they are fine and there is nothing you need to worry or be afraid about” says Moonstone.

“Yeah! I used to be afraid of the dark when I was younger and would get very nervous when the sun went down, but I’m not afraid anymore” Embergrove said.

“I’m still afraid of the dark and I’m worried about my trip because it’s the first time I have ever been away from home and I’m a very nervous person” Violet said.

“You don’t have to be so nervous all the time” Moonstone said, “If you stop to look and listen slowly to something, then you will find that it’s not as scary as you thought” she continued.

“I don’t know maybe” Violet said in a hesitant voice.

“How did you overcome fear Embergrove?” Violet asked.

“I still get nervous sometimes when it gets dark, but my sisters told me that we can turn the lights on and if they go out we can light candles to see” Embergrove said, “They also said that the sounds from the dark aren’t scary, but are just part of nature” she continued.

“Animals like bats and owls are not scary and are nocturnal which means they sleep in the day and are awake at night” Moonstone said, “They aren’t waking up to scare or hurt anyone, they are waking up and flying around to find their friends and family who fell asleep somewhere away from them during the day” she continued.

"I guess you're right, and those creatures are kind of cute and the sounds of the night can be very nice calming sounds to listen to if we stop and take a good listen" Violet says.

"Exactly!" Moonstone says, "We can and should have some fears because there are things and creatures we should be careful about and around, but we don't need to fear everything. If we did that, we would not learn anything new and then you and I would not be friends" she continued.

"You're right" Violet said yawning.

"let's go to bed, you can sleep in the guest room Violet" Moonstone says.

"Goodnight Violet and Moonstone!" Emborgrove says as she walks to her room.

"Goodnight Emborgrove" Moonstone says, "follow me" she says to Violet.

Violet and Moonstone walk down the hall to the guest room.

"Here's the guest room and my room is right down the hall, see you in the morning" Moonstone says.

"Thank you so much for your hospitality and help with me overcoming my fears" Violet says.

"No problem, maybe one day my sisters and I can come visit you and your sisters in your castle" Moonstone says.

"That would be lovely, goodnight" Violet says.

"Goodnight" Moonstone says as she walks to her room.

The next day, Violet wakes up feeling more confident and less scared and nervous than she had felt the night before. She walks down the hall and finds Moonstone and her sisters in the dining room eating breakfast.

"Good morning Violet" Moonstone says, "do you want some eggs?" she asks.

“I would love some thank you, and then I’m going to start my adventure again” Violet says.

Violet enjoys a nice breakfast with Moonstone and her sisters and they all walk through the forest to the path.

“It was great meeting you and I hope to see you again soon” Embergrove says hugging Violet.

“It was great meeting you too and I also hope we see each other again soon” Violet says hugging Embergrove back.

“Thank you again for everything Moonstone” Violet says giving her a big hug.

“I’m glad too” Violet said, “Bye gals, I can’t wait to hopefully see you again soon” she continues as she starts walking down the path.

“Bye Violet” says Embergrove waving to Violet.

Jasmine's Adventure

Jasmine starts flying down the path and wonders how her sisters are doing.

"I hope my sisters are ok, keep moving forward Jasmine, I'm sure they're fine" sh says to herself.

The further down the path she goes, the more she wonders if this adventure was such a good idea. She defiantly wants to meet more fairies including her parents, but Jasmine is also getting worried about splitting up.

"Maybe we shouldn't have split up?" Jasmine asks herself, "No! It's fine! I'm sure that Violet and Alex are fine!" She continues.

The more she flies down the path, the more Jasmine starts feeling like she has been a bad older sister by going in different directions than her sisters and starts to wish they hadn't gone on this adventure.

"We shouldn't have done this!" She says out loud to herself as she stops flying forward and starts pacing in mid air.

"I should be with my sisters protecting them from anything out here that could be dangerous. Besides, who knows if we will even find any other fairies" she says.

"What if we are the only fairies left and this adventure was waist of time!" She says.

"Maybe I should go back the way I came? No! I have to continue! It would be pointless to go back now and if I went back, I might not see Alex and Violet again!" She says with determination as she stops pacing in mid air and continues flying.

"But then again" She says and stops flying forward, "No! I have to keep going!" She says.

“Do you need help deciding what to do next?” A mysterious voice asked through the trees.

“No I don’t! Who’s there?” Jasmine said.

“Are you sure? You sound like you need a hand in contemplating your next decision”

The mysterious voice spoke again.

“Show yourself! Or I will fight you!” Jasmine said in a fierce tone.

“Ok I’m coming out” The mysterious voice said as she came onto the path, “I’m Shadow the dragon, it’s nice to meet you” Shadow said as she put out her claw.

“I’m Jasmine the fairy, it’s nice to meet you too” Jasmine said as she slowly shook Shadow’s claw.

“I’m sorry to meet and run, but I’m going to continue on with my adventure now if you don’t mind” Jasmine said.

“But aren’t you nervous about your sisters and worried that you have been a bad sister?” Shadow asked.

“No! Well maybe, but there is nothing I can do about it now!” Jasmine said.

“It’s ok to be scared sometimes and worry about your younger sisters, but you do not have to protect them all the time” Shadow said.

“But it’s just the three of us at home and I’m the oldest so I have to protect them!” Jasmine said.

“It’s ok for them to have a little freedom sometimes” Shadow said, “Why are you on this adventure?” She asked.

“Because we are trying to find our parents and any other fairies, we don’t remember our parents and I’m starting to think that we are the only three fairies left” Jasmine said.

“There could be more fairies out there, but what are you going to do if there are not?”

Shadow asks.

“I don’t know, but I have to keep looking and hopefully I will find more fairies and will see my sisters again” Jasmine says.

“I’m sure you will see your sisters again but you do not have to worry so much that you are being a bad older sister” Shadow said, “It’s ok to be away from your sisters and let them learn and grow on their own” she continued.

“But I’m the oldest and with no parents around, I need to be there for them whenever I can” Jasmine said.

“Sometimes it’s hard to always be there for people, you have to take some time for yourself and not always be worried about protecting them and being strong around them” Shadow said.

“I have to be strong!” Jasmine said.

“Not always” Shadow said, “It’s ok to let your guard down sometimes and show that you are vulnerable” she continued.

“I, I don’t know. I have always been the strong one of the group doing all I can to protect Alex and Violet” Jasmine said.

“Is there anything that you have been keeping inside that you want to bring out?” Shadow asked, “It’s ok, you can talk to me about it and let it out” she continued.

“I don’t know how to stop protecting them when we are together and it is hard to stay strong because I’m the oldest and I have to” Jasmine said crying.

“You don’t have to stay strong all the time and you can’t be with them forever so sometimes you not able to protect them” Shadow said.

"I don't know if we even have parents and am starting to believe we don't and that we are the only fairies left! I can't remember having parents also Violet is four years younger than me and Alex is four years younger than Violet and I don't remember how they were born!" Jasmine said still crying.

"There are many ways that someone can be born" Shadow said hugging Jasmine, "Maybe you gals were born in a different way than from parents" she continued.

"You think there is another way?" Jasmine asked.

"There could be, maybe you three were born from a babies first laugh and you are sisters because you were each born from three sisters' first laughs that are the same ages as the three of you" Shadow said.

"Maybe, that is a good thought" Jasmine said, "I should keep going on my adventure and find my way back home and maybe my sisters are there" she continued.

"I'm sure you will find them and everything will be ok, even if you don't find anymore fairies" Shadow said.

"You can come visit the castle anytime you want, I know my sisters would love to meet and make a new friend" Jasmine said, "This was our first time ever leaving home so we didn't have anyone except for each other before, but now I have you as a friend and maybe my sisters have made friends on their adventures that will one day be your friend too" she added.

"I would love to visit you in the future and meet Alex and Violet!" Shadow said.

"Thank you for all your help" Jasmine said as she hugged Shadow goodbye.

"Of course, and anytime you need someone to talk to, yell out Shadow and I'll come and we can have a nice private conversation" Shadow said hugging Jasmine.

"I will, thanks" Jasmine said as she started walking down the path.

Alexandra's Adventure

Alex started down her path and hoped she would find some fairies and her parents soon.

"I wonder when I will find my parents and other fairies? I wonder if Jasmine and Violet have found any yet? Or if they have found our parents yet?" She asked herself as she walked down the path.

"This is fun but I miss Jasmine and Violet, I hope they are ok and are also having fun on their adventures" she said as she started flying down the path, "I have never flown down a path this long before, I wonder how far it goes?" She continued.

The more Alex flew and walked down the path, the more anxious she got and she started wondering if she would ever find anyone.

"Will I ever find another fairy and is this path ever going to end?" She said out loud to herself.

A little bit further down the path, Alex saw a pond near the side of the path and flew over to explore it.

"Ooh a cute little pond!" She said as she drank the water and started flying it around her with her powers.

"Oh look! Those are some pretty flowers! Let me get some for Jasmine and Violet!" She said as she flew past the pond and the water went back into the pond behind her.

Alex started picking flowers for Violet and Jasmine and as she was picking, she ended up with two beautiful and big bouquets for each of them. when she finished picking the flowers, she noticed that she was deeper in the forest than she thought she had gone and got scared that she would not be able to find her way back to the path.

“Hello! Is anyone out there who knows the way back to the path?” Alex calls out to the seemingly empty forest.

“I know the way back” A mysterious voice said from behind a tree.

“Who and where are you?” Alex asked.

“I am Winterflower the elf and I’m behind a tree” Winterflower said as she comes out from behind a tree.

“Hi Winterflower, I’m Alexandra but you can call me Alex” Alex said.

“It’s nice to meet you Alex” Winterflower said, “What are you doing in this forest all alone?” She asked.

“My sisters and I are trying to find our parents and any other fairies that could be out there, but we got to a spot in the forest that had three paths and we split up” Alex said, “I don’t know if I will ever find my parents or any other fairies and this adventure was my idea” she continued.

“That sounds like a great adventure! But I understand that it can be hard to find something that you are not sure if it is out there or not” Winterflower said.

“Have you ever been on an adventure?” Alex asked, “This is mine and my sisters’ first adventure and our first time going out of the castle” she added.

“I have been on small adventures to different parts of the forest, but I have never been on a big adventure like the one you are on” Winterflower said.

“I like being out here, but I miss my sisters and am starting to think we shouldn’t have gone this adventure” Alex said.

“Sure you should have, it is always nice to try new things and meet new people”

Winterflower said.

“I have never met anyone new until I met you, my sisters and never left our castle before this so we never knew anyone except each other” Alex said.

“Well are you glad you went on this adventure? Or do you still really wish you had stayed home?” Winterflower asks.

“I’m glad because I met you!” Alex said.

“I’m glad I met you too, I have met lots of creatures but that would not have happened if I had never left my house” Winterflower said.

“I’m glad I left my house and met you because now I have a new friend” Alex said.

“That’s great! Also, you know it’s ok if you don’t always find what you are looking for. Sometimes you can find something better” Winterflower said.

“Wow! That’s really good advice! Where did you learn that?” Alex asked.

“My friend Snowander the Goblin told me and she is very wise” Winterflower said.

“She sounds very wise!” Alex said, “I sometimes struggle with a lack of patience, do you have any advice on that?” she asked.

“She is very wise!” Winterflower said, “Instead of focusing on what could happen in the future, try to stay in the present moment. I know that can be hard but a way that can help is by clearing your mind and focusing on what is going on in the moment, rather than thinking about the past or getting caught up thinking about what could happen next in the future” she added.

“Wow! That does sound hard but doable if I try my best, thank you!” Alex said.

“You’re welcome” Winterflower said, “the path through the forest is right this way, you didn’t go very far from it even though you thought you did” she continued as she showed Alex to the path.

They walked a little bit past the flowers and over the pond and then were back on the path.

“Thank you so much again for your help and great advice” Alex said, “You should come visit me and my sisters at the castle sometime and bring Snowander with you! I know my sisters would love to meet you both!” she continued as she hugged Winterflower.

“You’re so welcome and that sounds wonderful! I would love to visit soon and I’m sure Snowander would love to as well” Winterflower said hugging Alex back.

Then Alex started flying and sometimes walking back down the path.

The Fairy Sisters Reunited

As each sister continued down their separate paths, they all found an end to each path that led to one. First Jasmine made it to the recombined path, next Violet found her way and then Alex.

“I’m tired of flying” Jasmine said to herself, “Oh look, the paths turn back into one” she continued as she walked to the new part of the path where the three separate paths meet. Meanwhile on Violet’s path, Violet continues down walking and sometimes flying, while enjoying her surroundings. As Violet walked and flew down the path, some birds and other little animals came out and started flying and walking with Violet.

“Hello trees and animals” she said to the forest and the little creatures, “you are all very pretty and not scary anymore!” she continued.

Violet loved seeing all the little creatures and soon she made it to the end of her separate path and onto the singular path where she saw Jasmine.

“Jasmine!” Violet yelled, “I’m so glad I found you and the paths all met again!” She continued.

Jasmine turned around and ran up to Violet.

“Violet! I’m so glad to see you too!” Jasmine said hugging Violet.

“Have you seen Alex?” Violet asks Jasmine.

“Not since the paths separated, have you?” Jasmine replied.

“Same, I hope she’s ok” Violet said.

“Me too, I’m sure she’s fine and will find us soon” Jasmine said in an encouraging tone.

Meanwhile on Alex's path, Alex slowly walks and flies down the path holding the bouquets.

"Wow! I didn't realize how pretty everything was before I stopped rushing and wanting to be in a hurry all the time" she said to herself.

The more she walked and flew, the more she adored her environment and wished she didn't have to leave.

"Maybe one day Jasmine, Violet and I could come back to the forest and they could meet Winterflower" she said, "I hope I find them soon" she continued.

Alex walked a little further and saw that the path and saw an opening in the path.

"Oh look! I wonder if this is the end of path?" She said.

As Alex walked to the opening, she saw that the path turned into one path and sees Jasmine and Violet standing a little ways down the path.

"Violet! Jasmine!" Alex called out.

"Alex!" Violet said running over to Alex.

"How was your adventure?" Jasmine asked joining her sisters.

"It was fun! I learned that it is good to slow down and find the beauty in everything and that it's ok to not always find what you want" Alex said.

"Wow! That's deep!" Jasmine said, "who taught you that?" She asked Alex.

"A wise Elf named Winterflower I met when I was picking these flowers for you two and she learned from her friend Snowander who is a Goblin" Alex answered.

"Wow that's cool and thank you for the flowers!" Jasmine said, "I met a dragon named Shadow who taught me that it is ok to not be strong all the time and that I don't have to protect you two all the time" she continued.

“You’re welcome Jasmine” Alex said to Jasmine, “What about you Violet? How was your adventure?” She asked Violet.

“Those things are really interesting that y’all learned and thank you for the flowers Alex” Violet said.

“You’re welcome Violet” Alex replied.

“I was very nervous for most of my adventure, but I met a very nice troll named Moonstone and I spent the night at her cave” Violet said.

Alex and Jasmine looked at Violet liked she was crazy.

“You went to a strangers house?” Jasmine asked.

“That’s dangerous Violet!” Alex added.

“I know but it was getting dark and I was very scared because y’all know I’m nervous about the dark and Moonstone is very nice and helped me a lot!” Violet explained, “She has two younger sisters, Embergrove and Gravewillow and she and Embergrove helped me to learn that I shouldn’t be scared all the time and I should stop to listen more and then things won’t seem as scary as I thought they were” She continued.

“That makes sense, it is nice to slow down and focus on the present moment instead of worrying about the past or future” Alex said.

“Also I’m glad you were safe” Jasmine said, “Is that our castle in the distance?” She asked as she looked down the path.

The fairy sisters looked and started walking further down the path and saw their home.

“It is our castle!” Alex said.

“Yay we’re home!” Violet said.

“That was a great adventure! Thanks for the idea Alex” Jasmine said.

“Yeah! And even though we didn’t find what we were looking for, we found out more about ourselves that has helped us grow” she continued.

“We also all made new friends along the way that helped each of us on our journeys!” Alex said.

“Yeah! New friends who can come visit us and we could go visit them!” Jasmine said.

“It was a great adventure with some twists and turns” Violet said.

“With some happy and some scary parts” Jasmine added.

“Like the adventures that we read about in books!” Alex said.

Then the fairy sisters walked into their castle and lived happily ever after.

The End

The Fairy Sisters, is an epic tale of adventure and togetherness. Jasmine, Violet and Alexandra will learn how important fairies are for one another and learn that being together is not about quantity, but about quality
